RICH MINING MAN SHOT KIDNAPPER

Was Being Held by a Band of Greeks, Who Demanded
$15,000 Ransom

ONE MAN ON GUARD WHILE OTHER SLEPT

Perry Worked His Arms Free from Ropes with Which He Was Tied, Obtained Possession of Guard's Revolver and Shot Him.

DENVER, Colo., Oct. 7.—Kidnapped Wednesday night by a band of Greeks and held for $15,000 ransom, Robert Perry, 35, manager of the Moffett coal mines at Oak Creek, Colo., early yesterday shot one of his captors, wounding him seriously, and escaped.

The Greeks took Perry to a deserted cabin in a canyon 20 miles from Oak Creek, where one guarded him while the others slept. Perry worked his arms free from the ropes with which he was tied, and obtaining possession of the guard's revolver shot him.

He reached a ranch 10 miles away and telephoned word of his escape. Thursday night his father, S. M. Perry, owner of the mine, received a special delivery letter threatening his son with death if $15,000 was not forthcoming by last night.

MEANS $200,000 TO VERMONT MARBLE CO.

Effect of Recent Supreme Court Judgment in Boundary Line Case of Great Importance.

RUTLAND, Oct. 7.—The decision of the Supreme court in the Vermont marble company case, which means $200,000 to the plaintiff, was announced today. The decision in the case of the Vermont marble company vs. George P. Eastman and Percival W. Clement of this city means $200,000 to the plaintiff.

The parties in litigation have adjoining quarries at West Rutland. The Vermont company claimed Eastman was trespassing by tunneling beyond the boundary line, taking out valuable blocks and rendering their quarrying operations dangerous. Eastman asserted that the opposite was true. After a long hearing before Judge Frank L. Fish to determine the boundary line a decree giving the Vermont marble company $200,000 damages and establishing the line in their favor was made. Eastman and Clement appealed the case. The disputed land, the ownership of which the fixing of the boundary line establishes, is valued at $175,000.

TO HAVE SANITORIUM.

Christian Science Trustees Accept Land in Brookline, Mass.

BOSTON, Oct. 7.—The acceptance of a gift of twenty acres in Brookline, on which it is proposed to build a sanatorium to be conducted by the mother church, was announced by the Christian Science board of directors last night.

The step was taken in accordance with the wishes of the founder, Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, who proposed to the directors in 1907 that the mother church should "establish and maintain a Christian Science resort for the so-called sick."

Mrs. Mary Beecher Longyear of Brookline consulted the directors "in regard to the founding by Mrs. Longyear of an institution which Mrs. Eddy proposed should be called a sanatorium, and which should include provisions for such instructions in practical methods of caring for those under treatment as are consistent with the teachings of Christian Science." Last night the directors announced that Mrs. Longyear's offer of the land would be accepted.

MARINES CAPTURE PRINCE.

Too Proud to Beg, He Was Living in Jungle.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Oct. 7.—Too proud to beg, and finding himself on the verge of starvation because of the impoverishment of his noble family in Europe, Count Franz Lazarini, a renegade man well known in Central America, went to a jungle near here and kept himself alive for five months by eating monkey flesh and roots and berries.

A party of United States marines while on a big game hunting expedition discovered the titled foreigner and brought him back to the capital.

The count, half starved and nearly dead because of the privations he had suffered, fought his rescuers and begged them to let him remain in the jungle. The marines overpowered him, however, and are now attempting to nurse him back to health and reason at their commodious barracks in the American legation.

CALDWELL'S COW HAS HIGHEST MARK

Guernsey Produced 1,101 Pounds of Milk and 69.4 Pounds of Butterfat—September Reports.

Fort Dummer Cow Testing association's report for September finds one new member in F. B. Caldwell, East Northfield, Mass. He also has the highest individual cow, a Guernsey which produced 1,101 pounds of 6.3 per cent milk, which contained 69.4 pounds of butterfat, equal to 80.9 pounds of butter in the month. There is a triple tie for first honors in number of cows in the list. The figures in the following groups show, in order, pounds of milk, test, and butterfat:

RUFUS T. SHUMWAY DEAD.

Ex-Selectman of Orange, Mass., Had Also Been Assessor.

ORANGE, Mass., Oct. 7.—Rufus T. Shumway, 70, an ex-selectman, died last evening at his home on Highland street.

He was a native of Petersham and lived many years in Worcester, Athol and New Salem before coming to Orange 28 years ago. He was a carpenter and contractor and built more than 100 houses in Orange. For the last 15 years he had been in the lumber business.

He was selectman seven years and assessor four years.

Mr. Shumway was a member of Orange Masonic bodies and Aleppo Temple, Myrtle Shrine, Boston. He leaves four children, Lucia M. Whitney, Frederick, George A. Shumway of Providence, and a son, L. Batchelder of Springfield, Warner P. Shumway of Orange.

ATHOL VETERAN ROBBED.

Police Arrest Two Girls and Winchendon Youth.

ATHOL, Mass., Oct. 7.—Edith Florie, 19, and Myrtle Kent, 23, of Athol, and Clifford Landers, 29, of Winchendon, were arrested yesterday charged with larceny of $135 from the person of James H. J. Porter of 35 Common street, Athol.

It is alleged that the money was taken from Mr. Porter while he was in his home. He is a Grand Army veteran. Part of the money was found, but some had been spent for a new hat and other articles. The cases will be heard today.

BRITISH SHIP SUNK IN HAMPTON ROADS

The City of Norfolk Rams the Hawkhead in Heavy Fog—All Aboard Were Rescued.

NORFOLK, Va., Oct. 7.—The British steamer Hawkhead, at anchor in Hampton Roads, off Sewall's Point, was run down and sunk about 8 o'clock last night by the Chesapeake Steamship company's Bay Line steamer City of Norfolk, outward bound from this port for Baltimore with passengers. The City of Norfolk was badly damaged about the bow, but there was no loss of life so far as is known. The collision occurred in a heavy fog.

Captain Hand and the crew of the Hawkhead were taken off by small boats lowered by the City of Norfolk, the river steamer Pocahontas, and other craft which were passing. Fifteen minutes after being struck the British ship had settled on the bottom in 30 feet of water.

Most of the passengers on the City of Norfolk, who numbered nearly 100, were at dinner when the crash occurred. There was great excitement for a few minutes, but the officers soon restored order. The Pocahontas went alongside the City of Norfolk and the passengers were transferred to the river craft, but they remained there only a short time, being put aboard a bay liner of the Baltimore Steam Packet company, which took most of them on to Baltimore. About 15 of the passengers elected to return to Norfolk.

Although the City of Norfolk's bow was carried away for ten feet, the collision bulkheads held and she turned about and steamed slowly back to this port, being assisted by tugs. She will have to go to a ship yard for docking and repairs.

The City of Norfolk was proceeding to Old Point Comfort at a slow rate because of the fog, but in spite of this fact she struck the Hawkhead with great force, tearing a big hole in her side near the stern. The British ship tilted quickly and went down by the stern. The Hawkhead was anchored off the Sewall's Point pier of the Virginian railroad, awaiting a berth there. She arrived October 2 from Savannah. The captains of the vessels could not discuss the collision further than to say that the roads were enveloped in a heavy blanket of fog.

$1,787 JUDGMENT FOR CHILD'S DEATH

Federal Jury Returns a Verdict Against Metal Edge Box Company of Readsboro.

RUTLAND, Oct. 7.—A verdict of $1,787.33 for the plaintiff was returned by the jury in United States court yesterday afternoon in the case brought by Victor A. Agostini, administrator of the estate of Livio Franceschetti of Readsboro, against the National Metal Edge Box company. The plaintiff sought damages on the grounds of negligence, alleging the company did not provide a safety device in the way of a guide rail along the canal feeding the concern's mill.

The Franceschetti child was but five years old and was drowned while at play about the bank of the canal. According to the evidence the child with another boy was playing near the canal on March 14, 1915, and while on the ice skirting the edge fell into a hole in reaching for a stick.

The case brought up a number of questions of law as regards the liability of the parents, the knowledge of the child, who had been in school for a year, and the question of the possibility of contributory negligence, even in a child so young.

Attorneys R. E. Healey of Bennington and Frank C. Archibald of Manchester appeared for the plaintiff and Attorneys C. C. Pitts of Brattleboro and John C. Dorsey of this city were connected for the defense. Numerous questions were taken and it is probable the case will go higher and judgment will not be entered until a motion for the setting aside of the verdict can be argued.

Yesterday afternoon Judge Harland B. Howe received the plea of three respondents. Fred Bailey of Burlington who has been in jail for three months paid a fine of $25 and costs for sending obscene literature through the mails.

Robert Williams of New York city, a colored man, pleaded not guilty to a charge of smuggling heroin into the country. Frank Roberts of Lowell, Mass. admitted breaking into the postoffice at Ryegate in 1914. He has just completed serving a sentence of a year and a half in the state prison at Windsor.
